

TEACHETH MAN THAT WHICH HE KNEW NOT

Circular

Immediate
24 March 2020

1. As per the Government directives, the Independent University, Bangladesh (IUB) will remain closed until 4th April 2020.
2. All the course instructors are requested to assign grades based on the available semester assessments (i.e Mid Term, Quizzes, Presentations, Assignments etc.) and inform the students via E mail and/or Social Media.
3. Students who would like to improve the assigned results are requested to contact their respective course faculty members (emails are available on IUB website) for an additional assignment. The nature of the assignment is at the discretion of the faculty member.

Please note that the additional assignments grade can either improve or worsen the final grade. So, the students should only ask for this option if they are confident of their ability to improve the grade.

4. Final Course grades are due at the office of the Controller of Examination by 23rd April 2020.

All of the Faculty members and students are requested to follow the Government instruction and stay home and be safe.
