

Independent University, Bangladesh
Office of the Registrar
General Announcement

In view of recent queries from the students and esteemed guardians regarding the University's stance on political affiliation and on-campus political activities, IUB would like to reiterate its firm commitment to promoting the values of democracy, academic freedom, social inclusiveness, human rights, and individual integrity. In conducting the mandated activities as an academic institution, IUB maintains neutrality and objectivity in terms of race, gender, ethnicity, background, and politics.

The University pursues a policy of political neutrality and does not collectively or institutionally endorse any political ideology or platform.

Any member of the IUB community, however, has the freedom to pursue his/her personal choices of affiliations or external associations outside the University.

The IUB logo and the name of the university as 'IUB' must not be used to promote any organizational affiliation, connections, or activities except with the approval of the Department of Media and Public Relations, IUB.
