

Luna Shamsuddoha

Luna Shamsuddoha is the Vice-President of IUB's founding Trust (ESTCDT). She has been working as the Chairman of Dohatec New Media – Software Developers since 1992. She is the Director of Agrani Bank. Apart from these she is associated with a good number of national and international organizations.

Educational Qualification:

Masters in Social Science (MSS) International Relations, Dhaka University,

Bachelors in Social Science (BSS) International Relations, Dhaka University

Diploma on 'Teaching of English as a Foreign Language'- jointly conducted by British Council and Institute of Modern Languages, Dhaka

Professional Training:

Course on 'Management Training for Women,' at BMDC

Course on 'Time Management', UNDP/ILO

Software Conferences, USA, Germany, Switzerland, Denmark, Thailand

International Acknowledgements:

Member, Brains Trust – Strengthening the Global Trade Regime, International Chamber of Commerce, IMD International and Evian Group

Member, Council of Global Thought Leaders on Inclusive Growth.

Member, Geneva Trade and Development Forum (GTD Forum) - Inclusive Globalization, Entrepreneurship and Trade Facilitation

Co-Shepherd, Unleashing the potentials of SMEs in a regional context, GTD Forum

Panelist, Women's Unique Role in Driving Innovation at European Women Inventors & Innovators Network (EUWIIN) – Berlin 2007

Global Role Model, Empowering Women IT Entrepreneurs Partnership Program Microsoft Inc., Trestle Group Foundation

Recognized for achievements in the international Software Industry at the inauguration of Microsoft's Global Partners Conference in Denver, Colorado, USA with a film on her in 2007.