

Md. Tanveer Madar is a Founder Trustee of Education, Science, Technology and Cultural Development Trust (ESTCDT), the founding Trust of IUB. Since then he is involved in different activities of IUB.

He started his own Logistics and allied Companies in 1987 as the Managing Director and later formed an association of the International Freight Forwarders as its General Secretary.

He is now the Chairman of Hellmann Worldwide Logistics, the Jt. Venture partner Company of Germany.

In early 1991 he introduced FedEx in Bangladesh and became its Managing Director for over 26 years, till he retired recently. Earlier he served as the General Secretary of the International Air Express Association also.

He is associated with other Voluntary Organizations.